Foreword . . .

As we turn the pages of this, our Arrowhead for 1959, we reminisce with each page through a record of our years at B. H. S. — memories of curricular and extra-curricular activities — the work done, the knowledge gained, and the many friendships made.

Now — ready to follow our chosen careers, we leave "our school" and step ahead toward the beckoning future.

Our Superintendent

To the Seniors:

To the class of 1959, I offer my heartiest congratulations. You have impressed me as a class with a wonderful cooperative spirit, eager to make a success of any undertaking. If you, as individuals, carry this determination into your future fields of endeavor, your life, I feel sure, will be a successful and happy one.

In return for your many favors to me, feel free to call upon me for any assistance I may be able to render.

JEROME J. LYNCH,
Superintendent of Schools

Our Principal

Class of 1959:

Many years ago, Theodore Roosevelt, who was then President of the United States, wrote these words, "It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena; whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, and spends himself in a worthy cause; who, at the best, knows the triumph of high achievement; and who, at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat."

Although Mr. Roosevelt was speaking from a strictly athletic viewpoint, his words can be taken by people in almost any activity of living. Many people are not the "doer of deeds" of any sort, yet they spend their time making criticisms of the few that bring forth the ideas and those who actually get things done.

We of the faculty sincerely hope that this class of 1959 will make an all out effort to become the doers and not the critics of the future. We hope that the training which you have gained under our tutelage has equipped you well for this purpose. We hope finally, in the words of Roosevelt, that you "know the triumph of high achievement."

JAMES M. HORTON,
Principal

Dedication

Mrs. Priscilla J. Granfield, Homeroom Teacher —College Division.

For four wonderful years she has guided us through many ordeals and good times at Burlington High. She has been a friend and an inspiration to all and her classes have certainly brightened up the "Old Lab" considerably.

Mr. Thomas A. Mohan, Homeroom Teacher —Business and General Courses.

His earnest guidance through the years has helped us to prepare our futures with determination. He will always be remembered for his uncanny ability to provoke class discussions in which everyone participated.

As we leave Burlington High School, thankful for the knowledge and wisdom you have given to us, we simply but sincerely dedicate this book, the record of our accomplishments, to you.

We, the Senior Class of Burlington High School, wish to dedicate the 1959 Arrowhead to our homeroom teachers.

FRIENDS

Another year has passed us by,
Another year's to come;
And other friends we'll meet or make
To call a pal or chum.

We'll always have a happy thought
No matter what we do;
There'll always be a memory
Of loyal friends and true.

The fun we've had and friends we've made
Now send us on our way
To carry out the plans we've laid
After Graduation Day.

Burlington, Our Alma Mater

As we leave our Alma Mater, where our memories linger still, our hearts will ne'er forget thee, no matter where we be.	Here, we've learned to love our neighbor and to share life's old sweet song, but most of all the knowledge which will guide us forever on.
Now enter this great world, where one may travel far and gain a richer happiness for all. And you, dear Burlington, for guiding us along, we reminisce to thee fond memories of	our dearest Alma Mater where we spent these happy years, as a gateway to our future and a torch to victory.
Burlington, our Alma Mater that surrounds us here today, we will not forget thee though we be far far away.	Burlington, our Alma Mater, every voice will bid farewell to Burlington, our high school, and days we loved so well.
One day a hush will fall, the footsteps of us all will echo down the hall and disappear, but as we sadly start our journey far apart, a part of every heart	will linger here in our sacred Alma Mater, where we lived and learned to know that through the years we'll see you in the sweet after glow.

Arrowhead Staff

Memories are like flowers, they wither and fade away if you do not preserve them.

The Senior Class this year has many happy memories to keep in-store, and the Arrowhead Staff has taken pains to preserve them in this, our yearbook for 1959. Through the efforts of these capable hands, plus the aid of the entire Senior Class, the Arrowhead has become a reality.

We feel sure that it is one of the finest books ever to be produced at Burlington High School, and we know that with this yearbook, our memories will never fade away.

Evelyn Carlson,
Editor-in-Chief

In Appreciation —

As faculty advisor of the Arrowhead, Mr. John E. Fogelberg deserves much credit for his assistance in making this publication possible.

Thank you, from the Class of 1959.

Student Council

The Burlington High School Student Council has helped the school in many ways. Under the able guidance of Miss Helen Murphy, the Student Council for the first time printed and sold football programs at the home games.

Because of crowded conditions in our school, the council has been unable to hold many meetings. However, with the new school up and coming, I'm sure that Miss Murphy will make the Student Council a stand-out organization as it really should be.

Gerald Skelton,
President

IN APPRECIATION . . .

We the class of 1959 wish to express our appreciation to Miss Murphy for the many long hours of service rendered. She has been the coach of and inspiration to, the girls' basketball team as well as having organized and kept in existence the "Burlington Hi-Lites." As counsellor of the Student Council, she has brought forth many new ideas such as the Assemblies and Talent Shows plus the Student Council Booth where many school items may be purchased. Football games have been livened up by the Student Council Concession for hungry fans and the publication of football programs.

She has given much to B. H. S. in these last few years; of her time and of her personality. Everyone has profited much by her presence here.

Glee Club

Mr. Wood, a teacher of music here at B. H. S. has taken over the responsibility of the glee club this year.

The Glee Club is instrumental in teaching appreciation of good music as well as offering the opportunity for the enjoyment of group singing and harmonizing.

This year the Glee Club participated in the Annual Spring Music Festival.

The Record Club

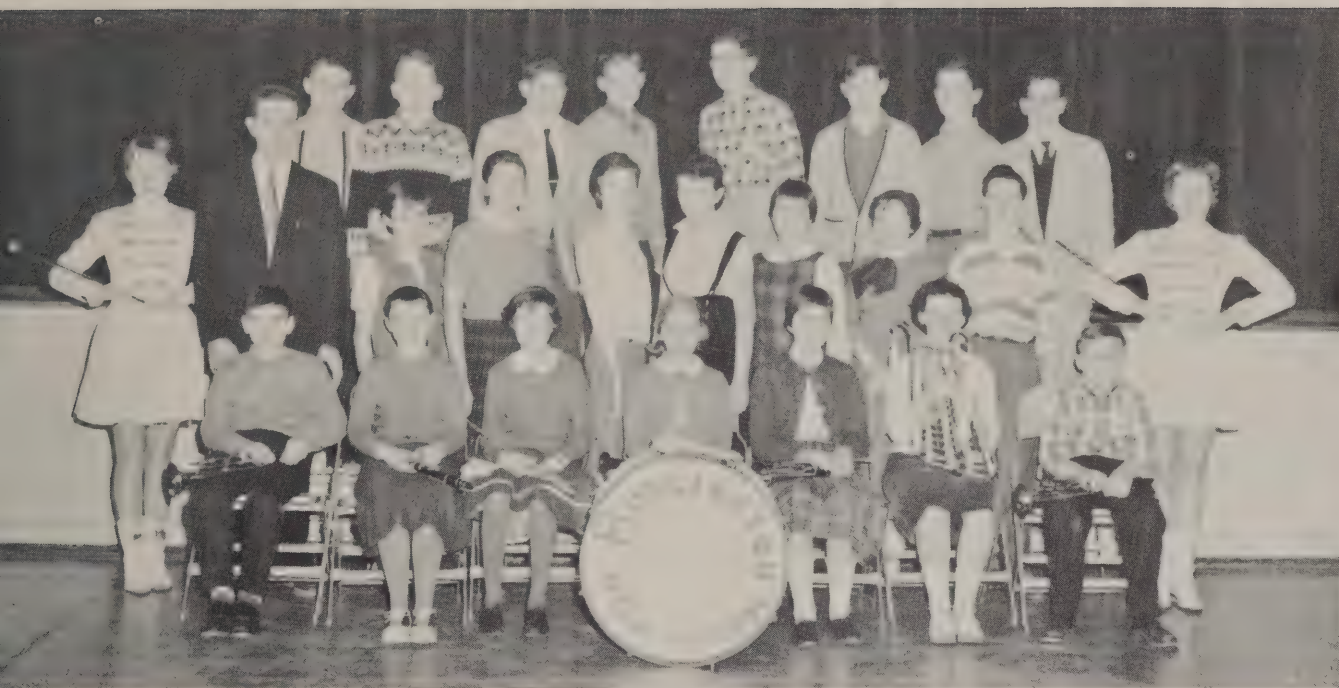

Under the direction of Miss Mary Cronin, the Record Club was reorganized for its second year. Thanks to the generosity of the R C A Plant on its donation of a tape recorder and hi-fi to the High School, the Record Club acquired the use of the tape recorder. We have taped many records, not only rock 'n roll but also light musicals, such as the score of South Pacific and others.

Applications were sent in for the purpose of receiving a chance to appear on Boston Ballroom.

The Record Club welcomes new members and hopes all will appreciate and enjoy the different types of music played at each meeting.

Football

This past season has proved to be a very successful one for the Red Devils. This could not have been accomplished without the fine team work and fighting spirit which was prevalent throughout.

This season was the best in the school's history, for not only did we win the Lowell Suburban Conference Championship, but also came in fourth in the state Class D, compiling a stupendous record of eight wins and one loss; that loss to a top Class C team.

I would like to thank coaches, Messrs. Roche, O'Connell, Garriotto and O'Brien for their patience and superb leadership. Also as captain of the 1958 football team, I would like to wish the Best of Luck to the 1959 team and their coaches of Burlington High School.

FOOTBALL APPRECIATION

We, the Senior football players, wish to express our appreciation to the coaching staff of Burlington High. Due to their never ending work, and the co-operation of the team they were able to give to Burlington the most outstanding team in the History of the High School. We are sure that next year's team will come through in true Burlington style with the coaching of Mr. Roche and Mr. O'Connell.

Boys' Basketball

This year Burlington High School, with its young team, finished in fifth place in the Lowell Suburban League and had a season's record of four wins and eight losses.

The team was organized only a few years back and in the seasons to come B. H. S. should have a top team.

The outstanding players this year were Gerald Skelton, Douglas Hyde, Richard Hovasse (the team's only seniors), Paul Lute and Charles Newton. The remainder of the team was comprised of sophomores.

Mr. O'Brien should look forward to a great future in this sport.

The seniors extend their best wishes for a good season next year and in all the years to follow.

Girls' Basketball

The Burlington Girls' Basketball Team of 1959 had a very successful season. Under the able guidance of "Coach" Murphy, the girls won the Lowell Suburban Championship for the second consecutive year. The team also entered the Ashby Girls' Basketball Tournament, winning the first two games, while losing the third one to the host, Ashby who eventually won the tournament with the Burlington girls winning the consolation trophy.

During the regular season the girls compiled the best winning team Burlington High has ever had by winning eleven and losing only one. The accurate shooting of Given, Graham, and Snelley, along with the fine defensive work of Marrano, Thayer, Callahan and Howard proved too much for the opposition.

With the departure of five seniors, there will be many openings to be filled. We the seniors, wish the girls of the 1960 season, a very successful year.

The Chelmsford game?

Class History of 1959

Like many other class histories ours became of great importance in the ninth grade. We realized then that it was going to be a considerably long and hard task to climb the ladder of success leading to "graduation." Our Freshman year was a most significant one for all. Many new privileges were given to us. The Science laboratory was opened to us with all its promises of fascination and thrills. Foreign languages became the sole interest for many of us as we walked through the corridors feeling like Greek philosophers. Some of us even thought ourselves to be the image of Einstein as the fields of higher mathematics and sciences one by one were admitted to our curriculum. These entirely novel courses opened a new doorway to knowledge. Many found still other interests and formed new friendships. It was often amusing to see how good friends became temporary enemies because of romantic difficulties.

As Freshmen we were allowed to attend dances and hold class socials. Dancing, of course, became a favorite pastime. Athletics in which we were now allowed to participate, became another field of great interest. Many went all out for sports and later received due credit and honor for their achievements in athletics. Girls were allowed to join the Senior High Cheerleading Squad which has always added great enthusiasm to sports. With all these privileges we felt as if we had grown up over night and looked forward with great anticipation for our school ring. A class meeting was called, where after much debate it was decided to call our class dance the "Base-Ball." And attending Career Day proved of much value in helping us to decide our future ambitions.

Our Junior year was a prosperous and happy one, for we purchased our school rings, held our first Prom and took our first exams for college entrance.

As September of '58 rolled around, we found ourselves getting ready to be the leaders of tomorrow. We received our pictures in December and in March held our "We Need The Money Hop" to help out our dwindling treasury.

Our class play and all our other Dramatic Club presentations will remain in the memories of both those who participated and those who supported them.

"Whatever will be, will be." We know our days will never be as carefree as they were in high school, but we will always remember and cherish these wonderful memories throughout our lives.

When Gerry Ganley tied Mrs. Hutching's shoe strings?

Class Prophecy

Our class always was different and our reunion of 1969 was no exception to the rule. After talking Doug Hyde, Burlington's millionaire playboy, into buying passage for 52 people for one week on an ocean liner, Claire Marrano and I sent out invitations. The Cebrero Bros. Pizza Palace contributed most of the food while the remainder came from the Flanagan Bros. Catering Service.

Janet Canales, Carol Jackman, Millie Sloan and Sara Hudson served as stewardesses. These four formed the Board of Directors for the International Dress Corporation.

The school teachers were the first to arrive. Ellen Given, elementary school teacher; Joan Pattison, a history teacher at B. H. S.; and Ann Penta, teacher in the College of Hard Knocks walked on board fully an hour ahead of schedule.

I remember that a long black limousine pulled up in front of the dock and out stepped Phil Pollicelli, who has a marvelous business of "taking care of people for a price," followed by his barber, Ronnie Cain and chauffeur, Ray Perry.

Gerry Ganley, producer of Huckleberry Hound, fell overboard while giving an imitation of Yogi Bear climbing a tree. Our other television star, Dick Hovasse, who has his own show entitled "Home With Hovey," was calmly trying to eat his way through Volume 1 of Evelyn Carlson's newest novel "The Satirical Tragedy of Essence."

The high spots of the trip included Jimmy Quinlan (most typical man in U. S.) singing "Sea Cruise," Dick Guidoboni, trying to throw a bucket of oyster stew on renowned New York Giant football star Gerry Skelton, and Hollywood's stunt man, Fran Smith doing loop-the-loops on the ballroom floor.

Pat Casey, who starred in the dramatic presentation "I Led Three Boys," which played 91 weeks on Broadway, and Sheila Howard, who recently appeared on the panel show "Keep Talking" gave everybody a laugh when they did the cha cha with eminent nuclear physicist, Dick Harper.

Dave Crist and his wife, the ex-Betteann Orlando, the co-owners of Horn Pond, and Lorraine Doherty, who runs a beauty salon, made up a trio which ruined everyone's hearing for a day.

Maureen Connors, Janet Casey and Doreen Kearins served as cigarette girls for one night but resigned because of too many pinches from Billy Evans, who owns a driving school and specialized in parking lessons.

Nurse Anne Thayer and the first woman to orbit the earth, Marilyn Graham, played an exhibition basketball game (only 2 to a side in this game) against the first woman to play for the Boston Celtics, Judy Snelley and secretary, Jeanne Reed.

When Mr. O'Connell did the bunny hop around the room in the 8th grade?

Barbara Klein, president of Tidewater Corporation, won the woman's swimming race over Janet Canales, who teaches Russian to underprivileged children whose parents are between the ages of 84 and 98.

Las Vegas gambler, Dick Rosson, exhibited his skill in a card game. Seen taking part in the game were real estate man, Tom Murray, judge Jimmy Murphy and optician Caddy Sherwod.

The president of Harry Dixon Breweries, Fred Osborne, was observed babbling incoherently after reading Diane Walsh's survey of the number of left-handed European men born in 1906.

Lovely model Priscilla McGinnis captured the fashion show. Mary Pattison and Pat Marchand, who are known for their book of famous sayings the best of which is "Speak softly and carry a deck of cards if the weather is right," supplied music with a tin cup and spoon and comb and tissue paper.

Don Springer, one of the best bookies in the business bet Harry Dixon that he couldn't drink a quart of H_2SO_4 . Well, Harry won but so what; unless Don figures out a way to pay bets to deceased persons. Hattie Skelton, running for State Representative against the Democratic candidate, Mr. Mohan did a cool hula dance with Wendy Hill. Wendy, now the owner of a cigarette factory, is continually smoking up all the profits.

It certainly was a memorable class reunion and one which I'll always remember, at least, until the one in 1979!

Class Will

We, the class of 1959, of Burlington High School, town of Burlington, County of Middlesex, being in full and complete possession of our faculties of mind and body, do hereby declare and proclaim this document to be our last will and testament and do hereby devise, bequeath, and bestow our gifts and possessions in the following manner:

FIRST: The Class Gift we leave in appreciation for many happy hours spent at B. H. S.

SECOND: To the faculty of the Burlington High School we bestow our gratitude for their patience, faith and inspiration throughout the past four years.

To Superintendent Lynch, a magic wand that will produce a new high school next year.

To Mr. Horton, a day free from delinquent students.

To Mr. Bettincourt, a smoking jacket to wear for the break.

To Mr. Craft, a day in which we all understood our bookkeeping.

To Miss Cronin, the ability to attend school during skiing season.

To Mr. DeMasi, his own private errand boy.

To Mr. Fogelberg, a book of "quickie quizzes."

To Mrs. Granfield, a large gold-plated nametag for the benefit of the underclassmen who still call her "Miss Mahoney."

To Mr. McDonald, a large sculpture of Julius Caesar.

To Mr. Mohan, the position of Commander-in-Chief of the "Burlington Navy Yard," and also a new schedule.

To Miss Murphy, a forty-eight hour day so that she may have more time for her many activities.

To Mrs. Murphy, a year's supply of Brillo to keep her new pots and pans clean and shining.

To Mrs. Niles, a translator of languages for the dictaphones in the business room.

To Mr. Nugent, a day without interruptions.

To Mr. Pimentel, a ten year's supply of mechanical drawing pencils and a safe to keep them in.

To Mrs. Wadsworth, a slightly larger bag for her chalk and erasers and for all the papers she finds in the desks.

THIRD: To the Junior Class, the honor of becoming Seniors.

FOURTH: To the Sophomore Class, our willingness to study.

FIFTH: To the Freshman Class, our hopes for a new high school.

SIXTH: To the Underclassmen:

Ronnie Cain to Mal Graham, his reputation as a highly trained scholar, and his perfect attendance record.

Janet Canales to Judy Motta, all the homework she's never done.

Patricia Casey to the future captain of the Cheerleaders, the never ending ability to get along with a certain athletic director.

Peter Cebrero to anybody who wants it, his knack of graduating on trial.

Maureen Connors to anyone who cares to horse around a bit, her false ponytail which has tickled a few ribs here and there.

David Crist to Jack Coleman, the best position on the football team and his ability to be first out of the locker room every day after practice.

The day Sara washed the walls in 101?

Lorraine Doherty to the future captains of the Cheerleaders, their ability to win first place in the Ashby Cheerleading Contest.

William Evans to Bobby Hoskins, his seat on the bench.

Jerry Ganley, alias Mandrake the magician, to Bobby Given his ability to keep calm while calling plays.

Sheila Howard to Rosemary Howard, March 17 of any year, and to Patty Hyde, Gabby Cabby and the chicken coop.

Richard Hovasse to Judy Motta, a pair of over-size snowshoes.

Doreen Kearins to Ginny Skelton, her speed typing record.

Barbara Klein to Dottie Biganzoli, a bill for the chauffeur services rendered.

Priscilla McGinnis to next year's shorthand class, Mother Niles, hoping that she is as nice to your class.

Thomas Murray to Barbara Carnes, his ability to get along with Mrs. Wadsworth.

Betteann Orlando to anyone who wants them, Mrs. Wadsworth's nice new desks.

Fred Osborne leaves, - - - maybe? Joan Pattison to Sandy Smith, the task of procuring milk for Mrs. Wadsworth every day. (Don't forget, two straws, please!)

Raymond Perry to Eddie Callahan, his ability to graduate!!!!!!

Philip Pollicelli to Coach Roche, his football jacket.

James Quinlan to his sister Eileen, the balance of the detention, given to him by his brother, that he didn't use.

Richard Rossen to Danny Shea, his ability to get out of class without getting into trouble.

Cedric Sherwood to his sisters and brother, his ability to get by, by the skin of his teeth with only one mistake.

Harriett Skelton to Joanne Guidoboni, a space on the honor roll list for her name, a certain little package and the pole in the cafeteria.

Judith Snelley to the future girls' basketball team our "Alma Mater Song."

Donald Springer leaves, at last!!!!

Diane Walsh to the future office practice class, her ability to read "Life" magazine in that class.

LASTLY: We hereby appoint Mr. Fogelberg executor of this, our last WILL and TESTAMENT, hereby revoking all former WILLS made by us.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we hereunto have subscribed our names in the year of our Lord; one thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine.

WHAT DOES THE FUTURE HOLD FOR YOU? PERHAPS A CAREER IN ELECTRONICS...AT RAYTHEON

Right at the start, it's nice to feel you "belong"—to know what your job is, and the kind of future open to you.

You'd do well to consider a career in electronics . . . fastest growing of all major industries. Raytheon is the electronics leader in New England, offering interesting job opportunities at its many plants in the suburban areas around Boston.

Raytheon's expansion means there will be a continuing need for bright, ambitious young people to work in a wide variety of fascinating and important projects.

Excellence in Electronics

If you think you'd be happy in a position with Raytheon, we suggest that you contact the Personnel Manager at the Spencer Laboratory in Burlington, or at one of Raytheon's other near-by plants and laboratories.
